Beaverton Police Looking for Vehicle that Struck Police Motorcycle

On March 21st, 2017, at approximately 8:45 am, a Beaverton Police Motorcycle Officer was on a traffic stop in the shoulder of the on-ramp to northbound Highway 217 from Canyon Road when his motorcycle was struck by a passing vehicle. The vehicle initially stopped, but then fled the scene.

The suspect vehicle was a silver Acura MDX, likely a 2004 model year, with an Oregon "Tree" license plate. It may have damage to the passenger side mirror.

The officer was not injured.

If you have any information about this incident, please contact Beaverton Police at (503) 629-0111 and reference case number 17-300812.
