DOORBELL CAMERA CAPTURES PACKAGE THEIF IN THE ACT

A Ring doorbell captured 36-year-old Wayne Leach of Gladstone pull into the driveway of a Beaverton home, walk to the front porch, and steal a package belonging the homeowner. The home owner, who was home at the time of the theft, realized what happened and quickly called the Beaverton Police. The victim provided the dispatcher with a description of Leach and the involved vehicle.

Officer Sabrina Johnson was on patrol nearby and heard the call come out over the radio. She spotted the involved vehicle, a 2006 dark grey Mazda MZ3, as it drove away from the scene. Officer Johnson stopped the Mazda and noticed that the driver, Wayne Leach, matched the description of the package theft suspect.

Leach was arrested and his vehicle was searched. The stolen package was recovered along with evidence of other package thefts.

Leach was charged with Identity Theft, Mail Theft, and the Unlawful Possession of Methamphetamine.
